

COVERS TAKEN OFF GUNS, EITEL LIKELY TO INTERN TONIGHT

Time Limit for German Sea Raider Reported to Expire This Evening.

ALABAMA IS OFF THE CAPE

Battleship Will See Anglo-French Squadron Does Not Violate Neutrality.

NEWPORT NEWS, March 30.—Their covers had been removed today from all guns on the German converted cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich in port here.

This was taken as indicating the vessel's armament would be removed and it would intern. The period allowed for it to do so or sail was reported to expire tonight.

The American battleship Alabama arrived off the Virginia capes at 5 a. m.

Administration Officials, Silent, Expect Alabama To Safeguard the Eitel

Navy, State, and Treasury officials were again silent today on the question whether the Prinz Eitel Friedrich is to intern or dash to sea.

However, Secretary Daniels, of the Navy Department, evinced much satisfaction over the fact the Alabama is now at Hampton Roads, where she arrived today, and that this Government is prepared to prevent any violation of neutrality either by the Eitel or by the Anglo-French squadron which is lying in wait for the Eitel off the Virginia capes.

It is known that officials here are of the opinion the German raider will intern. They cannot believe that the German government will permit a good ship to be sacrificed to certain destruction for nothing but a spectacular exit from Hampton Roads in the jaws of the British and French cruisers.

Reports from several sources are that one of the reasons the Alabama was sent to Hampton Roads was that a British cruiser recently violated neutrality by entering the waters about the capes, inside the three-mile limit.

Secretary Daniels said today that the reason he dispatched the Alabama was that he wanted an ample force at Hampton Roads to insure no violation of neutrality, though nothing had occurred to show it was contemplated. He simply wanted to be prepared.

He said there was the further reason that there have been criticisms in Congress about the time it would take to get the vessels of the reserve fleet to sea.

Congressman Gardner was one of those offering criticisms. As a matter of fact, it took the Alabama only thirty-six hours to get ready to sail. And this, as Secretary Daniels pointed out, was in the face of the fact orders were unexpected, being issued on Saturday night, when the members of the crew were scattered about the city, not expecting orders.

"Had the orders been given some other night in the week," said Secretary Daniels, "she could have been ready for sea in twenty-four hours."

No plans have been made at the Navy Department as to just how the crew of the Eitel will be cared for if the vessel interns. The expense, however, will be borne by the German government.

BREWERY WAR CRISIS EXPECTED TONIGHT

No Question of Wages Involved in Situation Threatening Workers' Strike.

Whether Washington is to have a "brewery war" is expected to be decided tonight at a meeting of the men of the three labor unions interested, at Painters' Hall, Pennsylvania avenue, near Third street northwest, where the action of the international executive board of the United Brewery Workmen of America in regard to the Washington situation will be made public.

A. J. Kugler, general organizer for the union, laid the case before the board in Cincinnati this morning with written instructions which show just how far the international body will go in supporting the demand of the local men for a lay-off system in slack periods that would allow all the workmen to work part of the time, rather than have part of them idle indefinitely. These will not be made public till the meeting this evening.

The men interested in the fight are the organized brewers, the bottlers, and the brewery wagon drivers. Their contract with the hostess brewers expires next Thursday, and they have asked that the lay-off clause be inserted in the new one. This is the only difference between the contracting parties, no question of wages or hours being involved.

"The lay-off system is operative in most of the big cities today, and it works to the advantage of both employers and their men," said Mr. Kugler. "In Cincinnati the brewing business is rather slack just now, and some of the men are working half time, while others are working four or five days a week."

Greek Ministry Denies Neutrality Is Perilous

ATHENS, March 30.—An official communication on the foreign policy of Greece says:

"The government, attributing great importance to the calm and tranquility of public opinion regarding the proper treatment of foreign affairs, considers it an absolute necessity to deny statements to the effect that if Greece does not abandon her attitude of neutrality she will lose the opportunity of realizing her national aspirations."

"The divergence of views between the government and its predecessors arose from opinions regarding the gravity of the dangers threatening the integrity of the country. The government is doing everything in its power to avoid possible dangers."

Cold Wave Is Due To Continue Tonight

Wintry Blasts Prove a Setback to Attitude Toward Spring Attire and Easter Styles.

More deep tube diving may be expected from your mercury column tonight. At 6 o'clock this morning the thin white stream snuggled down to the 23 degree mark, and tonight it is expected to hover around the same altitude.

There was nothing unexpected about the cold this morning, the forecaster pointed out. It was predicted, and it was only three expected after the performances of the temperature throughout this month. Neither was this the coldest March morning that has been experienced, though it causes a sudden reversal in the attitude of many toward spring attire and advance Easter styles.

EUROPE IS LIKELY TO UPHOLD SAM REGIME

Recognition of Haiti Government by Three Powers Causes Speculation.

France, Italy, and Germany have extended recognition to the present government of Haiti, that of Gen. Gull-laume Sam.

In some quarters much significance is seen in this action. European nations followed the lead of the United States in withholding recognition from the last three governments of Haiti, but now three have cleared this country in giving recognition to General Sam.

It is said the Sam government has obtained a loan of $500,000 in Europe, and this leads to the probability that it will be permanently upheld by European governmental and financial influence. France is the power whose influence is the most dominant.

Strategic importance is attached to the new move of the European governments in some quarters. It is said the United States is blocked from getting control over Haiti as a strategic position in the Caribbean whence the Panama canal could be better protected.

POINTS TO WORLD'S DEBT TO HEBREWS

Rabbi Simon's Passover Sermon Discusses Threefold Gift at Temple Service.

The world is indebted to the Hebrew people for three great principles—liberty, justice, and a true conception of God, said the Rev. Dr. Abram Simon in his Passover sermon at the Eighth Street Temple this morning, the service being one of the largest that will mark the seven-day celebration.

With the increase of liberty, especially in America, said Rabbi Simon, the race is prone to forget the teachings of its religion, adding that "persecution made heroes of our forefathers, but it is making of us cheap tin soldiers."

"The Jews were the first people born in liberty," said the rabbi. "They were not the first to think of liberty, but they first sang the song of political and civil liberty, and ever since that time liberty has spoken with a Jewish accent. Our doctrine is Lincolnian, because it was conceived in liberty and dedicated to the tremendous doctrine of unity in God."

"The Jews have also given to the world a new conception of justice. Some may call it righteousness, holiness, God's salvation, or the ideal of the Messiah, but the Jew knows that the strongest claim of social life is justice. We do not harp upon 'love' and 'pity,' or the more sentimental virtues, for we know that if genuine justice were done there would be little need for philanthropy or charity. The Jew has not asked the world for love or pity or sympathy, but it has asked for justice."

"Our third gift to the world was a sublime and a pure conception of God that it had ever known. Even for this one gift the world should have given the Jew every decent and proper consideration that it could. These three great things are vital to us, vital to civilization, and vital to our religion. And each of them first saw the light when the Jews went forth out of Egypt."

Services were also held at the Adas Israel Temple this morning by the Rev. Dr. Benjamin L. Grossman, and there will be meetings there this afternoon and evening. The Rev. George Silverstein will conduct Passover services throughout the week at Ahavah Sholem Synagogue, Fifth and I streets northwest.

CONFESSION OF RAE TANZER TO BE GIVEN THOROUGH PROBE

Alleged Conspirators Will Be Fought by Former Assistant District Attorney.

RESUME INQUIRY TODAY

"Debauching of Courts and Attack on Home Important," Says Exonerated Lawyer.

NEW YORK, March 30.—James W. Osborne, former assistant district attorney, cleared in a confession by Rae Tanzer of the charge, which formed the basis of her suit against him, declares he will bring the plotters to justice.

The seventy-page confession of Miss Tanzer asserted that until last Thursday afternoon she was honest in her belief that James W. Osborne was the man who had courted her and promised to marry her. On that day, she asserts, she saw the former assistant district attorney "in a good light" and the realization then dawned upon her that she had made charges against the wrong man.

Osborne sees conspiracy. Mr. Osborne made no effort to conceal his elation. He smiled continually and laughingly patted his friends on the back and told funny stories.

He was told of the statement of Attorney Spielberg, who had asserted that the girl had assumed the entire blame for the filing of the suit against him. Osborne shouted at the top of his voice, "She can't do it; she can't do it."

"I don't care what she says," he continued. "She said I was the man, didn't she? I know what I know and I know that I gave Slade & Slade all the opportunity that they could want, all the opportunity to find out the truth. It's their own fault, isn't it?"

"I don't care what she says. Just suppose I was a business man who didn't know the law. I would have this thing hanging over my head for three or four years. I wouldn't be able to attend to business. That is why I am fighting this case."

James W. Osborne later issued a formal statement, in which he asserted that "the attack upon me as an individual I regard as a matter of not very great importance." The statement continues:

"Attack on the Home." "As an attack upon the home of a citizen, I regard it as a matter of the greatest importance because the sacredness of the home is the foundation of this country, and no citizen should be attacked in his home without there being grave reasons to sustain the charge."

"I regard the debauching of the courts also as a matter of great importance, for the use of the courts to destroy the very thing which a court is designed to protect is as bad as treason."

"I desire the newspaper and the public to give the authorities the help which they have given during this whole time of trial to bring all the conspirators to justice."

"The evidence which has been furnished to me has not been, as a rule, discovered by detectives, but has been furnished by the public itself, though handed with great skill by the United States district attorney, his staff, and the agents of the Government."

"It was, of course, impossible for conspirators to collect any money from me, but I have the feeling that the necessity of maintaining professional silence concerning the interviews she had with them."

These lawyers will be summoned before H. Snowden Marshall, United States district attorney, today and will be asked to relate the circumstances which they had with Miss Tanzer on the occasions she visited them.

Every statement contained in Miss Tanzer's confession, it was asserted, will be investigated for the purpose of either corroborating or refuting it. Nothing in the confession, it was said, at the district attorney's office, will be accepted without first having been investigated.

Girl Saves Child By Daring Plunge

Swarthmore Student Dives Into Icy Stream Above Dam and Rescues Tot, Aged Seven.

PHILADELPHIA, March 30.—A thrilling story of the rescue of a seven-year-old girl from drowning in the icy waters of Crum Creek, by a plucky girl student at Swarthmore College, who braved the dangers of the swift current above the dam near Baltimore pike to save the little girl's life, became known today.

Helen Cullin, a senior at Swarthmore, is the heroine. The child whose life she saved is Mary Robinson, daughter of Mrs. Nita Robinson of Swarthmore.

The child was playing alone on the edge of the creek with her mother seated nearby, watching her, when she slipped and fell in the stream. Miss Cullin, who was canoeing with a classmate, heard the mother's screams.

Pulling off her sweater, Miss Cullin leaped into the icy current. Swimming to the spot where she had seen the child, she dove beneath the surface. Unable to find the little girl, she came up an instant for breath, and then dove again. A few more seconds passed and then she appeared, holding the child.

Miss Cullin battled desperately with the current before reaching the shore. A scousen girl sank to the ground exhausted.

"Oliver" was to have kept an important appointment yesterday, but he disappointed the detectives by failing to appear. Although the United States district attorney asserts that "Oliver" is no longer needed, it is known that Miss Osborne has engaged a private detective agency to hunt for him.

LINDSEY THREATENS TO SHOOT ACCUSERS

Denver Judge Produces Letter From Colonel Roosevelt to Prove He Was In the East.

DENVER, March 30.—A recent letter from former President Theodore Roosevelt, written to Judge Her B. Lindsey, of the juvenile court, proved a bombshell today to the alleged conspirators whom the juvenile court judge asserts are trying to defame his character.

It was introduced before the grand jury in refutation of the only so-called evidence in the form of an affidavit produced by those fighting Judge Lindsey.

Judge Lindsey said later that if his calculations went unpunished and any similar attacks were made on him or his wife's name in the future he would take the law into his own hands and settle it with a revolver.

Lindsey says is false makes accusations of events said to have taken place on March 29, 1915, Judge Lindsey introduced a letter from Roosevelt to show that he was in the East at the time.

The letter, dated New York, March 29, 1915, says in part:

"This is one of the most infamous conspiracies of which I ever heard. It makes my blood boil to read of it. I do not remember the exact date that you were here in March, 1912, but I do remember that you were here a great deal at that time. You stayed in my house and I know you were East practically all through the month of March, 1912, and I was in constant consultation with you."

GERMANY AGREES TO U. S. INSPECTION OF PRISON CAMPS

England Also Is Said to Have Accepted Offer, and Probe Will Begin Soon.

By CARL W. ACKERMAN.

(Copyright, 1915, by the United Press.) BERLIN (via The Hague), March 30.—Germany has agreed to throw open her military prison camps for an inspection by an American commission.

United States Ambassador Gerard made this announcement today. England is understood to have accepted the same offer and the trips of inspection are to begin immediately upon the arrival of the commission in Europe.

Ten Americans will constitute the commission. They will visit forty-seven prison camps in Germany and every effort will be made by the German authorities to see that their inspection of the condition of the military prisoners is free and unhampered.

To date the following members of the commission have been tentatively selected: J. C. Crew, of Boston, chairman; Charles Edward Russell, magazine writer, of New York; Lithgow Osborne, son of Warden Osborne, of Sing Sing prison, New York; American Consul Michelson of Cologne, and Dr. Carl Ohnesorg of the United States navy.

Under the terms of this agreement, the commission will be permitted to make a thorough inspection of every prison camp in Germany and England. The commission will be empowered to examine prisoners out of ear-shot of their guards, to hear all complaints and to endeavor to arrange minor disagreements between the authorities and the prisoners.

Copies of the commission's report will be forwarded to each of the belligerents. The commission will embody in its conclusions a recommendation that the warring powers adopt a uniform prison policy regarding supplies of food, correspondence, the amount of exercise to be allowed prisoners, and their general treatment by their guards.

Ambassador Gerard already has been successful in ameliorating the conditions of Germany's prisoners of war. He suggested to the German authorities that the race track at Ruhleben, where one of the largest of the prison camps is located, be opened as an exercise grounds for the prisoners. The suggestion was promptly approved.

Here Is Good News For Stomach Victims

Some very remarkable results are being obtained by treating stomach, liver and intestinal trouble with pure vegetable oils, which exert a cleansing, soothing, and purifying action upon the lower bowels, removing the obstructions of poisonous fecal matter and gases and preventing their absorption by the blood.

This done, the food is allowed free passage from the stomach, fermentation ceases and stomach troubles quickly disappear.

George H. Mayr, for twenty years a leading Chicago druggist, cured himself and many of his friends of stomach, liver, and intestinal troubles of years' standing by this treatment, and so successful was the remedy he devised that it has since been placed in the hands of druggists all over the country, who have sold thousands of bottles of it.

Though absolutely harmless, the effect of the medicine is sufficient to convince any one of its remarkable effectiveness and within 24 hours the sufferer feels like a new person. Mayr's Wonderful Remedy is sold by leading druggists everywhere, and the sufferer understanding that your money will be refunded without question or quibble if ONE bottle fails to give you absolute satisfaction.—Adv.
